

BODY MIRROR SYSTEM OF HEALING

WORKSHOP
WITH MARTIN BROFMAN

5 day Retreat, 26-30 May 2010

This 5 day workshop will teach you how to use the Body Mirror system as a technique, a set of tools which anyone can easily use.

You will be able to explore the relationship between your body, your consciousness, and your life. It is also a study of the inner attitudes which have been shown to encourage the healing process.

At the completion of the experience, you will be able to:

- Understand and experience yourself as a Being of energy
- Feel and direct energy, and see energy (auras, chakras, thought forms)
- Understand the relationship between your body and your consciousness
- Understand how symptoms in the body reflect tensions in the consciousness
- Read the body as a map of consciousness, understanding the inner causes to outer symptoms.
- Understand the chakras and their associations with specific parts of the consciousness and specific parts of the body.

The Body Mirror System is based on the idea that your body reflects your life. The parts of your body that do not work well reflect the parts of your life about which there is tension in your consciousness. Tension is stress, and stress causes symptoms.

It is a synthesis of Western psychology and Eastern philosophies based on the Chakras, energy centers found in the Hindu traditions. Because each of these chakras can be associated with certain parts of the consciousness as well as certain parts of the body, they allow us to read the body as a map of the consciousness within. Thus, tensions in the body are seen to reflect tensions in the consciousness. Use various tools designed for healing (white light, colours, thought forms). See the results of putting these techniques and tools to use.

This is an opportunity to go beyond your perceived limits, do things you thought were impossible, and recognize the unlimited nature of your Being.
