

AUTUMN EQUINOX

MEDITATION & CIRCLE DANCE

WITH ISABEL CONTRERAS & JOANNE FREEMAN

22 September 2012

At 19:00 followed by refreshments

LETTING GO

Life is a cycle and re-cycle of events and experiences. The Autumn Equinox is the counterpoint to the Spring Equinox. Autumn is when things begin to shed, and the growth which was young in spring is now matured. In the autumn, this energy is drawn down into the Earth.

It is a time of letting go and making order in our life. Outwardly, the leaves are drawn off the trees. Inwardly, we experience feeling drained. But the good news is the experience of change in energy within and around us. That is one of the purposes of the seasons, to be different from all the others so that we notice changes we might not have if everything stayed the same. It is a time of letting go and making order and get rid of the old.

Dancing in a circle is an ancient tradition common to many cultures for marking special occasions, strengthening community and encouraging togetherness. JoAnne will lead a selection of dances from both ancient and contemporary sources.

Join us to celebrate the equinox. It is the month of World Peace too.
